Overview

Alexander Baker is a seasoned litigator, focusing his practice on the defense of toxic torts and personal injury lawsuits, where he handles all phases of litigation from inception through trial in jurisdictions all over the country. Alexander has experience representing clients ranging from small, local, businesses to multinational clients. His experience defending a unique client base has helped him develop a cost-effective, results-driving, defense strategy which has led to hundreds of effective results.

Alexander also focuses his practice in all areas of transportation including aviation, maritime and trucking. He represents clients in a variety of litigation areas including negligence, premises liability, breach of contract, wrongful death and USCG administrative proceedings. In addition to handling litigation matters for his transportation clients, Alexander also provides counsel to businesses on transportation issues related to employment and safety through a review of businesses' safety compliance policies to protect his clients' interests as well as advising on federal regulations.

Alexander was the founding partner of the MG+M Chicago office with the goal of meeting clients' needs in Cook County and surrounding areas. Since its beginnings in 2019, the MG+M Chicago office has grown exponentially and continues to grow, helping clients with both litigation and transactional matters.

As an active member of the American Trucking Associations, he serves on the Insurance Task Force Committee. Alexander is also an active member of the Illinois Trucking Association, Wisconsin Motor Carriers' Association and the Traffic Club of Chicago. Alexander is a life-long resident of the Chicago area and enjoys exploring its many unique neighborhoods and restaurants. Outside of work, Alexander enjoys golfing, reading, cheering on Chicago sports teams, and spending time with his daughter where they reside in Oak Park, Illinois.

Experience

- + Represented the sellers of a prominent tourist sailing vessel in the City of Chicago in a mediation that resulted in his client receiving a seven-figure settlement. Mr. Baker's clients had not received payment on the sale of this vessel for nearly a year prior to his involvement.

- + Successfully argued a motion to dismiss for lack of personal jurisdiction where the plaintiff argued our client had waived the defense by participating in discovery. The court's granting of our client's motion set good precedent in the jurisdiction on issues related to waiver and participation in discovery for other clients.
- + Received dismissal for a floor tile brand where Plaintiff alleged take-home exposure from her husband's employment at a large floor tile distributor in the Chicago area. Dismissal was received after receiving significant demand from Plaintiff's counsel.
- + Received dismissal for a cosmetic talc supplier in a case where the plaintiff alleged bystander exposure from his wife's use of a popular cosmetic product brand. Plaintiff aggressively pursued our client with numerous sets of discovery, but due to responses eventually agreed to a voluntary dismissal. There were limited defendants related to cosmetic talc and posed significant risk in a dangerous jurisdiction.
- + Received Order granting client's personal jurisdiction motion to dismiss for a brake supplier allegedly supplied on various presses at a large industrial facility in Michigan. Due to success in responding to discovery and defending the client's corporate representative, Plaintiff had no option but to agree to granting client's motion.
- + Successfully defended a captain in an investigation by the US Coast Guard involving an accident between an architectural tour boat and a kayaker on the Chicago River.
- + Successfully negotiated hundreds of high risk settlements resulting in positive results for clients.
