Overview

Moni Nelson represents clients in asbestos litigation. Prior to joining MG+M, Moni started her career doing corporate personal injury defense work.

While attending Barry University School of Law, she was associate editor of the Child and Family Law Journal, as well as an advocate on the trial team. While on the trial team, she competed in the Chester E. Bedell Florida Bar Trial Competition, where her team was awarded second place. Additionally, Moni held multiple law clerk positions during her studies in the practice areas of family law, bodily injury, construction defect and personal injury.

Moni obtained her undergraduate degree in business management from The University of Tampa and worked in finance as a licensed broker prior to entering the legal field.

In her spare time, Moni enjoys journaling, traveling, and spending time with family and friends.
