Overview

John Nafar earned his JD from the University of Arizona, where he received the Dean's Achievement Scholarship and was a Victor J. Hayek Scholar. He received a BS in Business Management at Purdue University with a concentration in operations management.

Prior to MG+M, he was an associate for litigation defense firms based in Chicago and his hometown of St. Louis. Before attending law school, he worked at Honda North America as a senior buyer, where he accounted for the supplier selection of seat belts and seat heaters on Honda vehicles. John's business background is a huge asset in regard to understanding the clients' needs and producing results. His background combined with his legal skills is of great benefit to his clients.
