Overview

Ryan Patino is a detail-oriented attorney with a decade of experience in the Washington DC and Maryland area. Blending top-flight analysis, rapid response and a uniquely personal touch into his overall approach, Ryan is considered a trusted asset by the corporations he represents.

Prior to joining the firm, Ryan represented purchasers in large-scale acquisitions, including assisting a large development company in the purchase of a 60-unit rental community. Further, Ryan has represented management companies in residential and commercial landlord and tenant cases, including obtaining a successful outcome for a large commercial client in a construction defect dispute.

Ryan has worked on large scale real estate transactions, including assisting in the purchase and sale of multi-million-dollar properties. Ryan has also advised and worked with corporations and small businesses to avoid and resolve issues and disputes arising from commercial real estate transactions. In addition to substantial experience in real estate litigation and transactions, Ryan has significant experience in policy drafting, commercial and construction arbitration, alternative dispute resolution, and defending clients in administrative hearings.
