Overview

Tiffany K. Ackley focuses her practice on several areas of civil litigation, including premises liability, toxic tort, water contamination, product liability, landlord/tenant, environmental, and employment. Tiffany practices throughout the state of California.

Tiffany's experience includes defense of all types of civil litigation, including toxic tort claims involving alleged exposure to substances such as diacetyl, silica, benzene, asbestos, and other substances. Her experience also includes defense of contractors in claims alleging improper asbestos abatement and mold remediation, breach of contract, and design and workmanship errors. Outside the environmental and toxic tort practice area, she defends retailers and manufacturers in product liability litigation and handles premises liability cases. She has also represented various public entities.

Tiffany's selected experience includes two jury trial defense verdicts, one in a discrimination lawsuit and a second in a complex financial transaction lawsuit. Tiffany has litigated cases all throughout California.
