Overview

Mikaela represents corporate defendants in all phases of complex litigation and liability claims, offering strategic counsel on legal issues that impact her clients' business interests. Her practice emphasizes commercial disputes, toxic tort liability, environmental law, regulatory compliance and PFAS-related litigation. She assists in navigating the evolving landscape of environmental risks, including the legal and regulatory challenges related to PFAS.

Mikaela began her career at MG+M The Law Firm as a Litigation Law Clerk, where she built a strong foundation in complex litigation before joining the firm full-time. Her experience is further enriched by a judicial internship with the Honorable Patti B. Saris at the US District Court for the District of Massachusetts, giving her a unique perspective on litigation strategy and judicial decision-making.
