Overview

Kyle King represents clients in a broad range of general liability matters. He assists clients in assessing and managing risk, developing litigation strategies, and resolving claims efficiently and effectively. Kyle maintains a diverse caseload within the General Liability Practice, handling matters involving complex factual and legal issues.

Prior to joining MG+M, Kyle earned his JD from Gonzaga University School of Law, where he served on the Gonzaga Law Review and held leadership roles in the Student Bar Association. Before attending law school, he worked as a paralegal for several years, gaining extensive experience supporting civil and criminal litigation, legal research, and case management.
