

MG+M Partners Attended the DRI Diversity for Success Seminar and Virtual Corporate Expo

July 1, 2021

MG+M partners Carlos Poza (California), Rachel Moynihan (Massachusetts), and Lucia Pazos (Florida) recently attended the DRI Diversity for Success Seminar and Virtual Corporate Expo. The three-day program covered racial injustice, allyship, and concerns facing diverse members of various affinity bars.

As a part of the Virtual Corporate Expo, the three MG+M partners participated in introductory meetings with companies looking for opportunities to promote diversity in outside counsel. The overall goal of the Virtual Corporate Expo is to provide a unique opportunity for selected attorneys from historically underrepresented groups and their respective law firms to network and interview with companies and insurers committed to advancing core DEI objectives within their national outside counsel panels.
