

Amaryah Bocchino, MG+M's Managing Partner and Chief Diversity Officer, recognized by the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity among Leaders at the Front

September 27, 2021

MG+M is proud to announce that Amaryah Bocchino, Managing Partner and Chief Diversity Officer, has been recognized by the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity (LCLD) as one of their Leaders at the Front. An active LCLD Member, Amaryah is part of a group of law firm leaders to publish a Leader's Pledge, a personal action statement and public commitment to diversity.

The LCLD Leaders at the Front movement was designed to encourage law firm leaders to inspire others within their organization by committing to move diversity to the forefront of the conversation, ultimately creating impactful and lasting change.

Amaryah's Leader's Pledge, focused on diversity, equity and inclusion at MG+M, can be found here.
