

Trucking + Transportation Litigation

MG+M attorneys specialize in nationwide trucking and transportation litigation, covering every aspect of the industry. We offer a strong defense for manufacturers, premises owners, retailers and service providers in the areas of commercial litigation, freight and property claims, personal and catastrophic injuries, as well as labor and employment. For more than 15 years, our attorneys have gained a comprehensive understanding of the complexities that come with trucking and transportation, including interstate transportation and the extensive regulatory frameworks of the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Regulations, the Transportation Equity Act of the 21st Century and the Motor Carrier Safety Assistance Program.

Our approach

MG+M's team of skilled litigators and trial attorneys are committed to providing top-notch representation to small and midsize companies in the trucking and transportation industry, including freight carriers, transportation brokers, truck insurers, and truckers working both intra-state and interstate. We have extensive experience defending clients in state and federal courts and are well-versed in handling a wide range of legal issues impacting the trucking and transportation industry, including catastrophic injury, environmental concerns, contracts and commercial matters, hiring and retention issues, transitioning to a green economy, and federal regulations. Our attorneys maintain close communication with clients, their insurers and claims administrators, private investigators, law enforcement, witnesses, and experts to provide a robust and collaborative defense.

At MG+M, we understand the importance of early response and effective liability assessment when it comes to emergency accident investigations in trucking and transportation. We work collaboratively with a team of industry experts and private investigators who are equipped to handle issues and claims, no matter where or when they arise.

Flexible and creative integrated team

MG+M's 14 fully integrated offices are located near key transportation hubs nationwide. Our collaborative attorneys have litigated cases in all 50 states and several US territories, as well as in numerous federal, district and appellate courts. We are committed to meeting our clients' unique legal needs with the utmost integrity and excellence, and we do this through teamwork, flexibility, efficiency, creativity and relentless commitment to personal service. We understand the challenges facing our clients and are dedicated to working with them to find the best solutions.
